

Jim & Anna Hyonjoo Lint Scholarship

<http://www.lintcenter.org/Scholarships>

PDF scanned submission closure date: 31 July

$1,500

This program is offered to help further the education and career development of scholars, especially in the areas of International Affairs, Counterintelligence and National Security. Workers in these fields and their children are encouraged to apply with the goal of improving national security and global understanding.

Based upon availability, a minimum of one scholarship will be awarded per year. The amount and number of the scholarships will be determined by the amount of donated money that is available each year. Scholarship funds are intended for the cost of tuition and fees for classes only. Room and Board will not be funded. Candidates who do not win the Jim and Anna Hyonjoo Lint Scholarship will be eligible for other scholarships such as the Virginia & Frank Misselhorn Memorial Scholarship.

Applications received after the July 31st deadline will be considered for the following year. All information provided on your scholarship application will be treated with the utmost confidentiality.

Please read the entire packet before completing the application form. Incomplete applications will be withdrawn from consideration.

All accompanying essays must have the statement:

“I (request/do not request) this Essay to be published on the Lint Center for National Security Studies, Inc website (with/without) my name published.” Pick your choices.

A goal of the Lint Center will be to increase the publishing of papers related to the National Security goals and scholarship essays will allow ideas to improve and sometimes the first published work for our young scholars.

CAPSTONE Essay: Prepare an 600-800 word essay fully explaining one of the goals or concepts of The Lint Center for National Security Studies. This can be your thoughts, feelings, ideas or experiences pertaining to Counterintelligence, National Security, Alliance Building, and/or National Defense.

Ground-breaking innovative ideas/solutions are desired. Essays will be judged on scholarly rigor, creativity and innovation. Authors are encouraged to be interdisciplinary in their thinking. The author of the essay will be judged by former Counterintelligence Special Agents.

<http://www.flashcardscholarship.com/>

DUE: August 1, 2010 by 11:59 PST

We want you to stop studying the old-fashioned way & destroy your paper flashcards. Make a video of yourself destroying your flashcards and earn $500!

Let's be frank, we live in a digital age, that's why SimpleLeap Software wants to pay you to get rid of your paper flash cards. There is a catch...we want to see you do this creatively! Simply complete the short scholarship application, submit a video of you getting rid of your paper flashcards in the most creative way you can think of, post the video on our YouTube Group Page, and get your friends and family to view and rate the video. At the end the most creative video (chosen by us) with the most views and highest rating will win $500. Yes, that's it!

How to get started:

We are totally trying to make this as simple as possible. Get your money for school now!

1. Complete the short scholarship application.
2. Submit your "destruction" video before August 1, 2010 by 11:59 PST to our YouTube group.
3. Get your friends and family to view and rate the video.
4. Sit back and wait for the scholarship money to roll in if your video is selected.

Qualifications

One huge qualifier, you MUST be a high school or college student (yes even grad school students are welcome). It can be part time, full time, home school, online, whatever, but you must be an actively enrolled student in someone's high school, college or university at the time of your application. For more clarity, check the fine print.

Fine Print

Yes, there is fine print. Luckily, it's not that small and not that hard to understand, but our attorneys totally made us do it! Good luck on getting this easy peezy scholarship

Atlas Shrugged* Essay Contest Information

<http://essaycontest.aynrandnovels.com/AtlasShrugged.aspx>

Eligibility: 12th Graders, College Undergraduates, and Graduate Students

Entry Deadline:

September 17, 2010

FIRST PRIZE: $10,000
3 SECOND PRIZES: $2,000
5 THIRD PRIZES: $1,000
20 FINALISTS: $100
20 SEMIFINALISTS: $50

Topics

Select ONE of the following three topics:

1. According to John Galt, selfishness is both moral and practical. Explain what he means by this and how events of the story illustrate and dramatize his point.
2. Explain the meaning and wider significance of the following quote: “The words ‘to make money’ hold the essence of human morality.” According to the story of Atlas Shrugged, what ideas underlie the opposing maxims that “money is the root of all evil” and that “money is the root of all good”?
3. Capitalism’s defenders usually appeal to the “public good.” Contrast their approach to capitalism to Ayn Rand’s approach in Atlas Shrugged.

Judging

Essays will be judged on both style and content. Judges will look for writing that is clear, articulate and logically organized. Winning essays must demonstrate an outstanding grasp of the philosophic meaning of Atlas Shrugged.

Essay submissions are evaluated in a fair and unbiased four-round judging process. Judges are individually selected by the Ayn Rand Institute based on a demonstrated knowledge and understanding of Ayn Rand’s works. To ensure the anonymity of our participants, essay cover sheets are removed after the first round. Winners’ names are unknown to judges until after essays have been ranked and the contest results finalized. The Ayn Rand Institute checks essays with Ithenticate plagiarism detection software.

Rules

- No application is required. Contest is open to students worldwide.
- Entrant must be a 12th Grader, College Undergraduate, or Graduate Student.
- To avoid disqualification, mailed in essays must include a stapled cover sheet with the following information:

1. your name and address;
2. your e-mail address (if available);
3. the name and address of your school;

4. topic selected (#1, 2 or 3 from list above);
 5. your current grade level; and
 6. (optional) the name of the teacher who assigned the essay, if you are completing it for classroom credit.
- Essay must be no fewer than 800 and no more than 1,600 words in length, and double-spaced.
 - One entry per student, please.
 - Essay must be postmarked no later than September 17, 2010, no later than 11:59 PM, Pacific Standard time.
 - The Ayn Rand Institute has the right to provide contest deadline extensions when deemed appropriate.
 - Essay must be solely the work of the entrant. Plagiarism will result in disqualification.
 - Decisions of the judges are final.
 - Employees of the Ayn Rand Institute, its board of directors and their immediate family members are not eligible for this contest. Past first-place winners are not eligible for this contest.
 - All entries become the property of the Ayn Rand Institute and will not be returned.
 - Winners, finalists, semifinalists and all other participants will be notified via e-mail and/or by mail by November 27, 2010.
 - Contest winners agree to allow the Ayn Rand Institute to post their names on any of ARI's affiliated websites. The winning first place essay may be posted in its entirety on any of these websites with full credit given to the author.
 - Winners will be solely responsible for any federal, state or local taxes.

To Enter

SUBMIT YOUR ESSAY ONLINE

Or mail your essay with stapled cover sheet to:

Atlas Shrugged Essay Contest
The Ayn Rand Institute
P.O. Box 57044
Irvine, CA 92619-7044

Please do not submit duplicate essays!

If submitting your essay electronically, you will be sent an email confirming our receipt. If you have not received an e-mail notification within 24 hours, please e-mail info@aynrandonovels.com. If you are submitting by mail, please paperclip a stamped, self-addressed postcard to the your essay and we will return it to you.

To learn more about Atlas Shrugged, go to: <http://atlasshrugged.com>

Comments or Questions

Comments or questions about the essay contests are welcome. Please write to info@aynrandonovels.com.

Protected by Ithenticate Plagiarism Detection Software